

JUNIOR LEADERSHIP ACADEMY Train-the-Trainer *SUCCESS

CYA is experiencing great success with our new peer tutoring pilot program. Tilay Martin (left) is an 11th grader at Frederick Douglass High School in Prince George's County Public Schools. This is her third year as a Junior Leader with Community Youth Advance. Tilay began training as a tutor in September. Adarsh Kapur (right) is a 9th grader at High Point High School. In December, Tilay and Adarsh were paired to support Adarsh with distance learning. At that time Adarsh was failing all of his classes. Tilay trained to serve as Adarsh's peer tutor to provide homework help and tutoring in all core content subjects. He and Tilay meet two - three days per week for 1 - 2 hours each session. Each quarter, Adarsh's grades improved. By the 3rd quarter report card, Adarsh earned all A's and B's. Congratulations to both Tilay and Adarsh!
